"This picture represents a youth ran away with his bride. This youth is called Su Ka Chich and his wife is very skilful in rowing. When they are run away his mother in law permited them with a spear in her hand and on the point of the spear was a big piece of silver which was caught hold by her son in law during their fighting. At the mouth of the mountain the mother-in-law cried bitterly for departure of her daughter with her husband"

"This picture represents ~~of~~ a story (a Bo?) of the Chieh Kiang province which describes a lot of unprincipled rakes who called themselves as allied brothers and imitated to act as the thieves of the Liang Shan robbers. There was a gentleman, called Wu Shih Ming, often dissuaded one of these youth not join such out of law crowd and laid up sorrow for himself. Afterwards most of these vagabonds were beheaded only this one who listen to Mr Wu's lecture avoided from the trouble" Ching dynasty.
